Section 3.1. Powers. The Board of Directors shall have the power to elect or appoint all necessary committees or committee chairman, to enter into contracts, to employ agents, contractors, vendors, suppliers, workmen and others, to require any of them to give such bond for the faithful discharge of their duties as may be deemed wise, fix their compensation, if any, prescribe their duties, dismiss any appointed officer or employee, and generally to do and perform all of the necessary, convenient and proper things in carrying out the proper functions of the Association and as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and the Declaration. The Board of Directors may delegate to any committee or person such powers as the Board may deem wise. Section 3.7. Removal. A Director or Directors elected by the Members, or elected by the Directors to fill a vacancy, may be removed by the Members with or without cause if the number of votes cast to remove would be sufficient to elect the Director(s) at a meeting to elect Directors. A Director or Directors may be so removed by the Members only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing the Director(s). The meeting notice must state that the purpose of the meeting is for voting upon the removal of the Director(s). Section 4.4. President. The President shall be the principal officer of the Association and, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, shall be in general supervision and control of all of the business and affairs of the Association thereunto authorized by the Board of Directors, contracts, or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, excepting cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or by the By-Laws to some other officer or agent of the Association, or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed; and in general shall perform all duties incident to the office of President and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time. Section 4.8. Compensation. None of the Officers or members of the Board of Directors shall receive any compensation by reason of their acting as such, but that shall not prevent any one serving as a member of the Board of Directors from receiving such specific compensation as may be voted to him by the Board of Directors on account of special services rendered by him to the Association. Prior to such a decision by the Board, the applicable Director or Officer shall recuse himself or herself from that portion of the meeting.
